

Fair Play for Sweatshop Workers!

Impoverished sweatshop workers, 90% young women between the ages of 14 and 35, are filling orders in 'Free' Trade Zones around the globe for the millions of Pirate logos that will be sold and given away at PNC Park during the 2002 Baseball Season. As the Steelers charge on the Super Bowl, how can we ignore the gross civil rights violations occurring whenever workers stand up to demand living wages, safe working conditions and reasonable working hours?

Call or Email Chris Koch, and tell him that Pirate fans won't put up with this. Tell Chris to stop trying to cut workers' wages in half and that he is obligated to run a safe factory. After you get done talking to Chris, call Joe Billetdeaux, the Pirate's Merchandising Director, and tell him that we expect the home team to stand up for the workers who sew the Pirate's logo. If you get an answering machine or a secretary, be sure to leave a message with your phone number and address. They should get back to you.

Chris Koch, New Era

716.549.0445

chrisk@neweracap.com

Joe Billetdeaux, Pirates

412-323-5000

fanfeedback@pirates.mlb.com

Jim Keady is coming to Pittsburgh in March or April. He is a Soccer coach and player who went to live on Nike's poverty wages with Indonesian sweatshop workers. Order tickets and get on the mailing list for $5.

Check www.nikewages.org.

Name _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ - _____ - _____

of Tickets _____

$ Enclosed _____

IWW IU 450 Pittsburgh, POB 99416, Pittsburgh, PA 15233
pgh_iww_iu450@yahoo.com

How would you feel if your daughter asked, "Can I go work in the Free Trade Zone Mommy, Daddy?"