

HEY STARBUCKS WORKERS!

Starbucks workers in New York City are organizing for

- Increased wages
- An end to understaffing
- A guaranteed number of work hours per week

We have joined the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW) in order to win these demands.

We urge Baristas, Bussers, and Shift Supervisors from around the country to join with us.

Already we have won two small victories:

- Starbucks workers in New York, California, Pennsylvania and elsewhere have gained raises up to $0.50 per hour; and
- Starbucks management has introduced ergonomic standards and training into its employee manual.

These gains are a result of our struggle, but they are not enough. Trying to support ourselves on Starbucks wages especially with our busy work environment means a life of poverty and hardship. We deserve better. You do too.

Think how much more we could gain if workers at Starbucks everywhere unionized for more control over their working lives!
