

Three labor movement events near you...

Celebrating a simple message: when we fight, we win

Labor Notes brunch with UE Republic Windows and Doors workers

East Bay—Join Labor Notes friends and supporters Sunday, April 26 from 10 am to 12:30 pm for a special brunch with leaders of UE Local 1110, the union that occupied Republic Windows and Doors in December, capturing nationwide attention. The leaders are touring to remind the labor movement of one of our central tenets - you can't win if you don't fight.

Brunch will be held at the home of Frank and Alice Fried in Alameda at 742 Palmera Court.

For more information and to RSVP, call 510-436-5138 or 510-436-3722.

Speak out and video event with Republic workers

San Francisco—Sunday, April 26 at 2 pm, Republic workers will speak, and a video chronicling their victory will be shown, at ILWU Local 34 Hall at 2nd St and Embarcadero on the north side of AT&T Park.

This event is sponsored by LaborFest, UPWA, Transport Workers Solidarity Committee and others. For information, contact laborfest@laborfest.net or call 415-642-8066.

Turning crisis into opportunity...

2009 Bay Area TROUBLEMAKERS SCHOOL

Saturday, May 30, Laney College, Oakland

School 8:30 am to 5 pm, Special evening panel 6:30 pm

Republic workers did it—so can we! In the face of the economic crisis, workers are taking stock of how they can hold on to what they've got, and how to build power to get more. Register today for the Labor Notes day-school aimed at educating, inspiring, and giving new tools to brand-new and seasoned-vet labor activists.

For more information call 510-658-1147. Register online at www.labornotes.org/bayarea.
