

Protest Starbucks

Starbucks claims to be a “socially responsible” company. The facts prove otherwise. They have signed six settlement agreements with the National Labor Relations Board in the last three years claiming they would end anti-union intimidation. Only a couple percent of Starbucks coffee is fair trade - showing their willful neglect of coffee farmers supplying them beans is just as rampant as it is for the baristas who serve their coffee.

Join current and former Starbucks baristas as we demand:

- Reinstatement of ALL wrongfully terminated baristas
- End anti-union intimidation
- Pay baristas and coffee farmers more than poverty wages.

Protest:

July 25th at 4:30 pm

Starbucks
